

Subway Sleuths
After-School Program

A special 10-week program for young Train Enthusiasts on the Autism Spectrum
Practice social skills, learn about the subway & have fun!

WINTER/SPRING 2012 CLASSES FORMING NOW!
10 week session begins Tuesday, February 7

FIRST STOP ON THE TRAIN:
Sign up for an observation date!
Sat. Dec 17th at 10am OR
Tue. Jan 10th at 4:15pm

To sign-up, e-mail Julie at subway sleuths@gmail.com with your child's name, age and grade level.

Observations take place at The Transit Museum – corner of Boreum Place & Schermerhorn Street near downtown Brooklyn.

AT THE OBSERVATION: During this 45 minute screening process the Subway Sleuths team will get to know your child. We assess interested students through group interaction & activities, with the goal of creating a group that will be productive and have fun together. Families can also ask questions about the program. On Saturday spend the rest of the day at the museum as our guest.

Subway Sleuths is geared to students at the 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade level. However, plans are in the works to expand the program and we welcome inquiries from all interested kids — regardless of grade!

Check out Subway Sleuths in The New York Times! Google: new york times subway sleuths – and link directly to the front page article!

Subway Sleuths FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

WHAT: Subway Sleuths is an innovative Transit Museum afterschool program for students diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder. The program uses content about the New York City subway to practice and promote social engagement, collaboration, and problem solving. During the 10 sessions students immerse themselves in transit history and work in partnerships on a project they design. The program ends with a "Subway Sleuths Super Party" where students share their discoveries with family and friends!

WHEN: Classes meet weekly for 10 weeks, from 4:15 – 6 pm beginning Tuesday, February 7, 2012. (no class on February 21 and April 10 due to school vacation week)

WHERE: Subway Sleuths takes place at the New York Transit Museum, a decommissioned subway station on the corner of Boerum Place and Schermerhorn Street in downtown Brooklyn. Walking distance to F/G - A/C - 3/4/5 - R trains. Depending upon a child's school location, the Transit Museum may be able to provide supervised bus transportation from school to Subway Sleuths classes.

WHO: The program is open to any student who has been diagnosed with ASD, regardless of ability to pay.

COST: Suggested fee is $200. However no child will be excluded based on ability to pay. Participants may pay according to their financial capability, from $25 to $200. Payment is due upon admission to the program.

ANY QUESTIONS?
Contact Lynette Morse at (718) 694-1823 or lynette.morse@nyct.com

